OF HENDERSON.

The Maine election will come off Sept. 12, and the situation is so desperate that Secretary Taft is to tour the state again next week.

The Ninth District Congressional Convention met in Maysville yesterday, with many candidates contending for the nomination. Indications pointed to the nomination of Jas. N.
Kehoe, as a compromise candidate.

It has been given out by the corner that President Frank K. Hipple, of the Philadelphia Real Estate Trust Co., committed suicide. The $7,000,000 failure followed his death.

There are four candidates for Appellate Judge, to succeed Judge T.
H. Paynter. They are John M.
Lussing, the appointee; Allie W.
Young, J. J. Osborne and E. L.
Worthington. The race promises to be a lively one. Things are being shaped to put it off until next year.

Hon. John K. Hendrick, of Paducah, has formally announced his candidacy for Attorney General and Western Kentucky will rally as one man to his support. He is recognized everywhere as one of Kentucky's greatest lawyers and the opportunity to secure the services of such a man does not often come to the people of the State. He declares that he is the candidate of no faction or clique and if elected will hold himself to be the servant of the whole people. Watch him sweep the State.

Mun Wilson made a speech at Madisonville Monday in which he announced himself a candidate for Congress. He said if the committee did not call a convention, ignoring Stanley's nomination, that he would make the race independent, using the scales of justice as his device.
Somebody ought to talk to Mun.

The meeting between Senator Mc-Creary and Gov. Beckham at Lexington to arrange for a series of joint debates, resulted in no agreement.
The matter will be taken up later.

turned the first of the week from the Courier-Journal's European tour, is expected to arrive home to-night.

President of Chile by the unanimous vote of Congress.

BIG MONTH.

72 Arrests Made by Police During August.

For the month of August, not including the last day, the police made 72 arrests. A few of the cases called in the city court were dismissed without prejudice. The principal causes of arrest were as follows:

Breach of the peace..... 30 Drunk..... 20
Fornication..... 4
Grand larceny..... 1

The other cases were for disorderly conduct, fast driving, etc. About 50 of the persons arrested were colored. Fines aggregating $750 were assessed and about one-third of the amount was paid.

The officers had a good rest during the month of July, but have been kept on the hustle during "the merry month" of August. Probably the patrol wagon has been in demand more than any month since it has been received. The colored population have pretty well sustained the record for bad citizenship, while the disorderly element of the whites has been more than usually demonstrative.

SUES FOR DIVORCE

And Custody of their Little Son.

Lizzie Fields has filed suit for divorce from her husband, William H.
Fields, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. In addition to an absolute divorce the plaintiff prays the custody of their two-year-old son.
Prentice Fields. The parties were married in this county several years ago.

OUT ON $100 BOND.

Sheriff Cravens and U. S.
Marshal Arrest Old
Offender.

Deputy Sheriff, Lucian Cravens, has been getting in some more of his good work, with the assistance of U.
S. Marshal Wade Brown, of Paducah.
Randle Jones, a negro, a peripatetic vender of booze, it is claimed, was arrested by the above named gentlemen Wednesday, in the vicinity of Newstead. He, through the friendship of his negro friends, had often been successful in getting out of the way of officers, was working about a mill when the two officers made their appearance so unexpectedly that he didn't have time to take to the woods, and so surrendered without an effort to escape.

He was brought to the city and presented before Commissioner L.
Yonts. After considering the case Commissioner Yonts put him under a bond of $100 to appear for a hearing next Tuesday.

The Old Reliable Jewelry House of Hopkinsville is, after all, the best place to get anything in the Jewelry line. There's a record behind us, a record of over thirty years; a clean record of satisfied customers, a record of honest dealing, for honest quality, honest prices. It's a record any Jeweler might feel proud of. And when we sell an article we have in mind that we have a record to maintain, and no slipshod methods, no careless workmanship, no lack of quality, is ever allowed to mar the record of the past. But to improve, if possible, this record, is ever our aim, and goods are sold for as low a price as it is possible to sell reliable goods.

It will pay you in the end to deal with the Old Reliable Jeweler.

Beautiful Bethel College Opens Next Monday.

The above group is of the faculty of last year, which is the same for the coming session with the exception Mrs. Roger W. Harrison and Miss Margaret Goode, whose pictures appear first in the row standing of the group. Those who will be members of the faculty this year and whose likenesses appear above are: President and Mrs. Harrison; seated below, Misses Susong, Alexander Jones, and Harrison.

As Old Sol's path across the sky becomes shorter with each passing day, so has the notch-stick of the expectant school girl nearly been rounded up, and the pleasures of vacation been remanded to memory's store-room.

Trunks have nearly been packed with the many things that a young lady needs away from home at boarding school, and many farewells have already been spoken, for the pupils must be here on the opening day of old and honored Bethel Female College, whose doors open wide on their hinges next Monday for another term of study.

Those who were here last spring are anticipating with unalloyed pleasure the cheerful grasps of the fatherly President and the "mother of the home," his beloved wife, and the teachers at whose feet they sat and learned and realized, too, that wisdom can be gained by those who seek for it.

Those who are coming to "Old Bethel" for the first time, have built air-castles and filled them with fond imaginings of what their future is to be and what are to be their environments and—"How is John going to get along without me so long?" Yes, that is the way now. has always been so, and ever will be.

It takes two lives to make a perfect unit, and after a shuffle of the cards of the game of life, hearts generally find their affinity sooner or later.

The session of 1906-7 bids fair to be the most prosperous in the history of Bethel. Dr. Edmund Harrison, since taking charge of this historic institution of learning, has labored untiringly to bring it up to its present high standard. He has always surrounded himself with the most competent instructors to assist him in moulding the minds of the young ladies committed to his charge, while his most estimable wife and faithful daughter have always concentrated their every effort to make the college life a joy to the young ladies who have left the "old roof-tree" for a season and come to them to be taught what is true womanhood.

During vacation this year extensive improvements have been made in and around the college. New carpets have been put down, new papering has been added to the walls, the wood work in the college chapel and the desks have been newly varnished and the entire building has undergone a thorough course of remodeling, adding all the more attractiveness to its beautiful home-like appearance and comfort.

The faculty for the coming session is all that parents can desire for the training and making of their daughters.

First we mention that christian gentlemen, President Edmund Harrison, A. M. LL. D., who will have charge of the classes in Latin, Physiology, Logic and Senior English.

The classes of Mathematics and Natural Science, taught last session by Miss Margaret W. Goode, will this year be under the tutelage of Miss Eleanor Gardner, who comes to the school with the strongest endorsements as a teacher whose experience eminently qualifies her for imparting instruction in that line of study.

Miss Lizzie Lou Alexander, B. A., will again have charge of the classes studying English, French and German languages and History, and great results in her department can confidently be expected.

Miss Mae Susong, B. A., who also returns this year, is at home in English, Literature and Latin, and has the happy faculty of giving out, in almost tangible shape, ideas from a well stored mind that the student cannot fail to comprehend and appreciate.

In the Primary Department, presided over last year by Mrs. Evie Nash Harrison, but who has gone to N. Carolina to join her husband, Mr.
Roger W. Harrison, another new teacher comes, and one who is endorsed in the highest possible terms as being splendidly qualified by many years experience to teach in this department. The new teacher is Miss Courtney Partlow, and the results of her patient and faithful work are not at all hypothetical.

Music—"the language of the angels"—will be taught by those two accomplished ladies, Misses Elizabeth Jones, a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, and Miss Kate Harrison, known to be one of the best instructors in our colleges. Her forte is Piano, Musical History, Harmony and Theory, while Miss Jones will give her time to Voice Culture and Piano Instruction.
